Product Manager, Reverse Engineering — Thoughtworks

Pune, India · agentic software development platform

- Own an AI product that reverse engineers legacy codebases (Java, C#/.NET, C/C++, PHP, COBOL) into functional specifications that product teams validate before modernisation.
- Product lead for the AI pipeline: code parsed into a knowledge graph, LLM comprehension of capabilities and business rules, and LangGraph agents with GraphRAG that write specs of workflows, business rules and edge cases.
- Run cost and quality proofs of concept on 2M+ line open-source codebases (lazy analysis, a fast-lane spec engine, prompt caching and model routing, a graph-store benchmark against Neo4j) to cut LLM spend per spec.
- Introduced product-led OKRs with Engineering and prepare demos for enterprise buyers in banking.
